JUDITH CAMPBELL CANTERED HOME.

Schorr's Esher-Reflection Filly Proved to Memphis Track.

Memphis, Tenn., April 10.—John W. Schorr's Escher-Reflection filly, Judith Campbell, showed herself to be the best Eyear-old at the local track by beating in a carter the pick of the younger division in the Memphis stakes at five furionge, it was the first time the youngsters have been asked to go this distance, and as a result every starter received support. Judita Campbell was always favorite, while Mallory, Bennett's unbeaten son of Onondago, was second choice. At the third trial the . field was sent away in splendid style. Woods took Judith Campbell to the front and closely followed by Mallory and Party made the running into the strepels from the sixteenth pole. The Schorr filly was pulled up to a gallop, while there was a general closing up by the other contestants, Judith Campbell won by three tengths from Ently, owned by Pat Dunne. Watkins Overtion came strong at the end and beat Mallory a head for third money. The stake was worth about $2000 to the winner.
